

2017 Hawaii Group Journeys Preview!

2017 Program Menu! A byproduct of our "2016 e-mail vote" is our 2017 program slate. All of next year's journeys either took second place or first place but I could not fit them in this year because of the seasonally. As you know, I only travel when it is the best time (based on weather, events, US dollar strength, etc.).

Booking, Enchantments and Finalization! The real work has begun. The request for the land space has already been made (although operators have not finalized the majority of their 2017). Once the land is confirmed, I will start booking the air. Meanwhile, the enhancement phase (going back and forth between the vendors to make sure we have a dream itinerary) is underway.

With some luck, I will have more details ready by mid-August / early September. .
