Day 4. Excursion to Obidos, Nazare, and Fatima. The most interesting sights in this part of Portugal will be ours to enjoy on today's full day excursion. First, we stop at the walled town of Obidos, with its picturesque streets and the Pousada do Castelo. A wedding present from King Dinis to Queen Isabel of Aragon, this preserved medieval town is charming and memorable. Next, explore Batalha and its beautiful 14th century monastery containing the tomb of King John I. Our day ends at the world-famous shrine of Fatima. (B), (L), (D)

Day 5. Exploring Lisbon. Now the capital of a small country on the western fringe of the Iberian Peninsula, Lisbon was the center of Europe's longest-lived overseas empire.
